Thank you for getting involved with Producer's Edge Magazine. The publishing team felt there was a hole on the news stands and bookstores for a Music Tech magazine with a serious focus on the production side of Urban Music. We are here to fill that void as the 'Creative Journal of Hip Hop, R&B and Rap music production. The Digital Edition contains video clips of the featured production team In-studio, Software and Hardware hands on demos, sounds and samples, a capellas and tutorials. As a subscriber you are locked into the Xtra Content which includes even more PE Mag goodness. After your order is processed you'll receive a subscriber's username and password. You'll use this to get at your exclusive package. Welcome aboard!
